High School to College and Career Pathways

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

Family and Consumer Sciences Education helps prepare students for family life, work life, and careers in family and consumer sciences by providing opportunities to develop the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and behaviors needed through character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and vocational preparation.

FAMILY AND HUMAN SERVICES

Workforce Trends

According to the U.S. Department of Labor, family and community service employees hold about 2.2 million jobs. Some of the fastest growing occupations in the nation are concentrated in the social services, especially those that involve working with the elderly.

Get the Facts

Studies have shown that a harmonious marriage relationship promotes competence and maturity in the couple's children. Other studies have demonstrated that marital conflict may result in cognitive delay, school difficulties, and antisocial or withdrawn behavior.

Beyond High School

There are a number of options for education and training beyond high school, depending on your career goals.

Sample Occupations

- > Child Care Aide/Worker
- > FACS Teacher
- > Preschool Teacher
- > Social Worker
- > Teacher Assistant
